Our instructor, Mr. Greg Kessinger, has over 20 years of experience in instructing others on the technical aspects of fire alarm and detection systems. He has taught our alarm technicians and others, including oil companies in Alaska and Canada, our military in several states including our air base in northern Greenland. Mr. Kessinger has approved continuing education classes for both building and fire officials in several states. Mr. Kessinger has also taught classes for the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey engineers. His teaching style helps ensure an attentive audience. There's a fair chance someone in your company has attended one of his classes in the past. Mr. Kessinger is the author of the fire alarm courses currently taught nationally by the ESA.
